

The Nsangwini Rock Paintings

These awe inspiring rock paintings are located in one of the hills in the Nsangwini area. Overlooking the Maguga dam and the lower Komati River. Amazing scenery graces this historic site.

Ancient figures meticulously drawn on the rock in the cave portray the dance, fight and hunting of a period naturally lived.

The view of the Nkomati from the trail down to the paintings

The famous and unique "Birdmen"

The spectacular "birdmen" painting especially provokes the mind, as one wonders whether this was the portrayal of the spiritual component of life in the Nsangwini Rock Shelter.

Through human beings quest for lucid detail these paintings have been recently outlined but still remain a prehistoric artistic display of an ancient way of life written on the rock by our fore runners.

Departure Time: 8am
Duration of the trip is approx. 4hrs – 5hrs

Good walking shoes are advised

Rates:
R325.00 per person sharing minimum charge R975.00.

Maximum number of people per trip is 6. Rates include drive, guide, snacks, soft drinks or mineral water and a visit to local art and craft shops.

Please Note:
Phophonyane Lodge Management and, or any of their staff are not responsible for any injury occurring to any persons partaking in this trip.

Thira and Thulani and the 4x4s